Today's Readings

First Reading — They took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern. (Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10)

Psalm — Lord, come to my aid! (Psalm 40)

Second Reading — Let us keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith. (Hebrews 12:1-4)

Gospel — I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing. (Luke 12:49-53)

LISTEN TO JESUS AND THE PROPHETS

Prophets have always had a tough row to hoe. Their words, often unwelcome, are used against them to persecute and even kill them. Such was the fate of the Old Testament prophets, and Jeremiah is a great example of this. Jesus endured opposition from sinners, and did not turn back from a shameful death in order to rise to a glorious new life. The ultimate prophet, Jesus sought to warn the people of his time and ours of the divisions that his words would cause, showing himself to be the prophet of all time. We all need to look at our divisions and dilemmas in light of Jesus' teachings and warnings, and seek to understand all that he has proclaimed and taught about what will happen if we fail to listen.

To our loving Parish Family

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for all the prayers, phone calls, texts, cards, Mass intentions and visits during Pop's illness and transition from this world to his eternal home. Your love and support truly helped us through this difficult time with constant reminders of your thoughts and prayers. Pop always loved visiting our Parish and was humbled at the welcome he always felt. Thank you again for all you did for our family and for our Pop, Carl Gagliano, Sr.
