Today's Readings

First Reading — As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight. (Exodus 17:8-13)

Psalm — Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. (Psalm 121)

Second Reading — Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed. (2 Timothy 3:14 — 4:2)

Gospel — Will not God secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? (Luke 18:1-8)

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God's passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

A special note of thanks to all the members of your church for the very lovely joint funeral mass put on by Our Lady of the Lake. The music, readings, and the comments made by those participating will long be remembered. The luncheon following—what delicious food the church members prepared! The photo display brought back memories.

The day after we returned to Michigan John fell and broke his hip. He had surgery and is now in a rehab center working on getting stronger. If anyone wishes to send him a card the address is:
