Today's Readings

First Reading — The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint. (Sirach 35:12-14,16-18)

Psalm — The Lord hears the cry of the poor. (Psalm 34)

Second Reading — The Lord will rescue me from every threat. (2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18)

Gospel — All who exalt themselves will be humbled; all who humble themselves will be exalted. (Luke 18:9-14)

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Friday's Solemnity of All Saints and Saturday's Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed fit well at the beginning of November. The liturgical readings of this final month in the Church year are keyed to the end of time and the fulfillment of Jesus' saving acts. Nowhere is this more fully celebrated than in Mexico, where Nov. 2 is the "Day of the Dead." Missionaries moved an ancient Aztec festival from midsummer to November, linking the festival to Christian themes. Today, it is a time for remembering the dead and celebrating the continuity of life, principally by festive picnics in cemeteries. There are foods and games, and people socialize with other families and tell favorite stories about their dear ones. The sweetness of life is honored by sugary desserts & treats. Flowers, music, lights and feasting assure that the day is not at all morbid. Traditionally, the day begins with Mass, a procession to the cemetery, and a morning feast. Most families have a special dinner with the pan de muerto, or "bread of the dead." A toy skeleton is baked into the loaf, and the one who bites into it is considered lucky indeed. The dead are not feared, but deeply loved, and this joyful family feast points both to age-old customs and Resurrection faith.

+ UPDATE ON BISHOP BAKER'S REPLACEMENT +

Recently, at several diocesan events, Bishop Baker has announced that the Vatican has officially accepted his retirement but ordered that he "stay in place until his successor is named and installed. That means that the process of selecting a new bishop for our diocese has begun. There is no official timetable for the process. It is usually a matter of months rather than weeks. Keep praying that God will guide the man He has chosen to be our next bishop. Fr. Bill
