VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

November 1-7 is National Vocations Awareness Week. It is an opportunity to emphasize religious vocations in service of the Church. God is always calling men and women to serve Him as priests, religious men and women, and deacons. The Church needs religious vocations.

There are two relationships that are part of every religious vocation:

1. The individual's relationship to Jesus Christ: He is the one who personally calls people to a vocation. Whatever vocation a person has, it will be lived out through the relationship that person has with Jesus Christ.
2. The individual's relationship to the Church: Vocations are personal, not private. If someone is called to a religious vocation, that person is called to serve the Church in some way. Every vocation should build up the Church.

On the topic of vocations, Pope St. John Paul II said, "Everything depends on God, but God has seen fit to make some things depend on us." There are things every Catholic can do to foster Church vocations:

1. Pray. Pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, the religious life, and the diaconate. Pray for those who are already living out vocations.
2. Encourage. If you think a person has a religious vocation, encourage them to consider it. They must make the decision, but they may be waiting for someone to affirm what they have been thinking.
3. Support Marriages. Every religious vocation began within a family. Stable marriages lead to stable religious vocations.

Happy Vocation Awareness Week! Be sure to thank God for the many saints He has raised up to serve the Church in every age.

Sharing is Caring

Pantries provide much needed food to hundreds of families. This year the needs are great, so to assist the greatest number of people we can, we are asking for monetary donations that will be shared with two pantries, the Christian Love Pantry in Pell City and Resurrection Catholic Church in Clanton. These pantries share Christ's love with the families they assist by meeting this basic need. Please consider a monetary donation to help with this year's project. Checks should be made payable to OLL Social Concerns and marked for Thanksgiving or Pantry Drive. May God bless you as you share with others.

Support Our Future Priests The Seminarian Education Fund

The Diocese of Birmingham currently has 9 men studying for the priesthood. The average cost per student is $42,000/year which include tuition, room and board. One of the best ways to financially support our seminarians is to make a tax-deductible donation to the Seminarian Education Fund (which began as the Burse Club). It is a permanent fund set aside to provide income for the education of seminarians that Catholic Charities and grants do not cover.

To support our future priests, you may mail your gift to:

Seminarian Education Fund
PO Box 12047
Birmingham, AL 35202

All donors will be remembered in the prayers of the seminarians.
