Today's Readings

First Reading — Melchizedek brought out bread and wine and blessed Abram. (Genesis 14:18-20).

Psalm — You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek (Psalm 110).

Second Reading — Paul gives his description of the institution of the Eucharist (1 Corinthians 11:23-26).

Gospel — Jesus feeds the crowd with five loaves and two fish (Luke 9:11b-17).

THE HEAVENLY BANQUET

One of the images used for eternal life in the bible is a banquet. The Catechism of the Catholic Church connects this image to receiving communion: "If the Eucharist is the memorial of the Passover of the Lord Jesus, if by our communion at the altar we are filled "with every heavenly blessing and grace" (Eucharistic Prayer I), then the Eucharist is also an anticipation of the heavenly glory." (#1402)

The Catechism also states, "Thus from celebration to celebration, as they proclaim the Paschal mystery of Jesus "until he comes," the pilgrim People of God advances, "following the narrow way of the cross," toward the heavenly banquet, when all the elect will be seated at the table of the kingdom." (#1344)

Eucharistic communion is a foretaste of the Paschal Feast of Heaven. In the Eucharist we increase our union with God. (The word "communion" means "union with.") That union will only be complete in eternal life. Then God will be, "all in all." (1Corinthians 15, 28)

"Holy communion augments our union with Christ. The principal fruit of receiving the Eucharist in Holy Communion is an intimate union with Christ Jesus." (Catechism, #1391) The Eucharist is food for the journey of life. It strengthens us spiritually just as ordinary food strengthens us physically.

In the Book of Joshua, we read that when the People of God reached the Promised Land, the manna ceased. It was no longer necessary because the Promised Land produced all the food the people needed. (5, 11-13) The Eucharist is like the manna. It is "bread from heaven" to sustain us until we reach eternal life.

Before receiving communion, the priest says quietly, "May the Body of Christ keep me safe for eternal life. May the Blood of Christ keep me safe for eternal life." May we all seek the "bread from heaven" that nourishes us for eternal life.

FIRST SATURDAY MASS

Our parish will begin offering a First Saturday Mass at 9:00 a.m. on July 2nd. This will be offered on a temporary basis for six months to see if there is interest in the parish for this devotion.

At Fatima, Mary promised to those who made the five consecutive First Saturdays that she would assist them at the hour of death with the grace of perseverance, which is necessary for salvation. To fulfill the devotion one must pray the rosary, go to confession, and receive communion, then spend 15 minutes in meditation on one of the mysteries of the rosary.

Mission Cooperative Appeal June 25 and June 25, 2022

It is time for our special collection for the Mission Cooperative Appeal. The heartfelt generosity that you have always given to the missions is greatly appreciated by those who are less fortunate. Pope Francis often speaks about the call to be missionary disciples. Helping the Mission is a way to fulfill that call.

This year the funds will directly help support the following participating groups:

1. Diocese of Aguascalientes, Mexico-Bishop Juan Espinoza Jimenez
2. Diocese of Irinjalakuda, India-Bishop Pauly Kannoorkadan
3. Diocese of Kumba, Cameroon-Bishop Agapitus Nfon
4. Diocese of Maiduguri, Nigeria-Bishop Oliver Dashe
5. Diocese of Matagalpa, Nicaragua-Bishop Rolando Alvarez
6. Pontifical Ecclesiastical Academy, Rome, Italy-Archbishop Joseph Marino
7. Diocese of Warangal, India-Bishop Udumala Bala

Bible Study Group

Please join us for a special Bible Study studying the Acts of the Apostles. We will continue meeting past Pentecost covering the second half of the Book of Acts.

The group will meet each Tuesday morning at 9:45 am in the Parish Hall.

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL FORTY HOURS DEVOTION JUNE 17-JUNE 19, 2022 CATHEDRAL OF ST PAUL

The United State Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has called for a Eucharistic Revival, a three-year "grassroots revival of devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist." Particularly right now, the bishops feel the Church in the United States needs (1) healing, (2) unity, (3) formation, and (4) sending. The mission of the revival is to renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. Locally, we will prepare for the Eucharistic Revival with a Forty Hours Devotion, beginning June 17th at the Cathedral of St. Paul. The devotion will culminate with a Eucharistic procession through the streets of downtown Birmingham on June 19th, The Feast of Corpus Christi, at 7:00 pm. Everyone in the Diocese of Birmingham is invited to take part in the devotion and the procession. For more information, please visit bhmdiocese.org.

The Body and Blood of Christ

When Jesus went back to Heaven, He didn't want to leave us all alone. So, He gave up Himself to us in the Holy Eucharist. First, He gave Himself to the Apostles at the Last Supper, and today He gives Himself to us in Holy Communion.

Normally, when we eat something, it gets absorbed into our body. But receiving Jesus in Holy Communion does something different. It makes us more into Jesus' Body! It brings our soul closer to God and closer to all the other people in the Church. That's what "Communion" means.

When we go to Communion in a state of grace, we can get so much more grace from God. Our venial (smaller) sins can be taken away and we can get more strength to do His will. In fact, the time that your prayers are the most powerful is right after you receive Holy Communion, when Jesus is right inside you. He is your closest friend and only wants what is good for you. When you go to Communion, remember Who you just receive and don't forget to thank Him for coming to you!
