Gospel — Those who are deemed worthy of the coming age can no longer die (Luke 20:27-38).

NOVEMBER 11TH

November 11th is Veterans' Day in the United States. It is a day to honor all the men and women who were members of the military. We thank them for sacrificing for us. The day used to be called Armistice Day. On November 11, 1918, the armistice ending World War I was signed in France. Because the peace did not last, November 11th was changed to a day to honor all military veterans.

On the Church's calendar, November 11th is the Memorial of St. Martin of Tours. Born of pagan parents, Martin was raised in Italy. The son of a veteran, he was forced at age of 15 to join the army. He became a Christian catechumen at 18. It was said that he lived more like a monk than a soldier. At 23, he refused a war bonus and told his commander, "I have served you as a soldier; now let me serve Christ. I am a soldier of Christ and it is not lawful for me to fight." He was discharged and became a disciple of St. Hillary of Poitiers. (January 13th)

One of the most famous images of St. Martin shows him wrapping a cloak around a poor man. The legend is that, as a soldier, Martin was passing by a gate to a city on a winter day and saw a poor beggar with no coat. Martin took his sword and cut his own cloak in two. He gave half of it to the beggar. That night, Jesus appeared to him in a vision and identified himself as the beggar Martin sacrificed to help. "Whatever you did for these least brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25, 40)

Whether as a soldier or a bishop, Martin defended the weak. He protected those who were vulnerable to physical and spiritual evils. We can all learn from St. Martin of Tours' example of dedication to serving Christ as a layperson and as a cleric.

Bishop Robert Barron's

"THE CREED"

The keys that unlock the beliefs of the Christian Faith are stated in the Nicene Creed, which we pray at every Sunday Mass. This formal statement of Faith is the foundation of Christianity, and to this day, most Christians around the world would subscribe to it.

Please join us as we explore the Creed with Bishop Robert Barron in a new Study .

Presentations will be on Sunday between the Masses and again on Monday night at 7:00 pm

November 6-7 - Episode. 1 – I believe....

November 13-14 – Episode. 2 - God, the Father Almighty...

November 20-21 - Episode. 3 – Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son...

November 27-28 - Episode. 4 – He suffered Death...

December 4-5 - Episode. 5 – Holy Spirit, the Giver of Life...

December 11-12 - Episode. 6 – One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church....

What Will Make Us Happy

In today's Gospel reading, some men ask Jesus about people being married when they are in Heaven. Jesus tells them that in Heaven people are like angels because they can't die anymore, so they can't be married.

When we are small there are things that we like to do, like playing with toys, that we won't like as much when we get bigger. As we get older, different things make us happy, but when we get to Heaven it will be something even better that we will want. Do you know what that is? It's God! We will realize that what makes us the very happiest is not toys or friends or a husband or wife, but God Himself!

Have you ever had something that you liked and then later you didn't care about it very much? That's the way things go in this life, because everything is only temporary. When we get to Heaven being happy with God will last forever!
